Smt. Shobha G.S., addressed the girl students and shared her views on why it is important to raise a voice and stand for themselves and for other women in the present society for their rights. She gave some case studies of few women from villages in different parts of Karnataka as examples. She even spoke about Nirbhaya case how society has portrayed the image of women in present scenario.

At the end of the session, girl students were given the opportunity to share their views followed by question and answer session. The speaker motivated students to have exposure of literature, stories, poems to know their revolutionary ideas in regional language and feel free to have open discussions and debates on the challenging topics that is very much essential for the current youth to change the mindset about women.

It was an experimental day for all girl students. The event provided a platform to have a thought on mindset of the society at present and how as youth, we can contribute in bringing change. Around 80 students participated in the event. Ms. Tabasum G, addressed students and informed in brief about Women Redressal and Anti-sexual harassment Cell, its objectives & processes and proposed vote of thanks.
